Bodegas Jiménez Vila – Núcleo 2017

Dark colour with a purple core and hue. New oak, vanilla and toast. Ripe dark berries, roasted meaty notes with inky dark fruit and leather. Good grip and density on the palate, youthful but ripe tannin, there's notes of new oak, vanilla and plenty of spices, high ripeness with plum, cassis and cherry leading on to a long and powerful finish. Still needing time but fine potential.

What does Andreas Larsson's score reveal about your wine quality?

AVERAGE

80 to 84 it is a simple wine, without complexity with pure fruit, lighter structure and occasionally some small imperfections.

GOOD

85 to 88 it is a good to very good wine with some character and occasionally complexity.

VERY GOOD

89 to 92 It is a very good to outstanding wine generally complex, structured and age worthy with a lot of character and terroir expression.

OUTSTANDING

93 to 96 it is an outstanding to world class wine which possesses complexity, nuance, terroir expression, age worthiness, concentration and length.

EXCEPTIONAL

97 to 100 means that's one of the great wine of the world – unique and personal with all of the above-mentioned qualities in terms of complexity, density, concentration, length and age worthiness but also unique personality, maturity or potential for incredibly long ageing to become something extremely unique.
